Dear Judge,

I'll introduce you at the event after I share a bit about who we are as Wisc Right to Life and why we're holding this Candidate Forum. What would you like me to add or delete regarding your introduction? This is what I have so far.

In our attempt to have an unbiased, non-partisan candidate forum this evening we carefully considered who would be able to lead us in an Objective Forum. What type of person should we ask? Well, someone who is a presiding judge certainly has the skills necessary to be a facilitator of fairness. Who would people like to come out to see? Someone who's been in the newspaper and on the radio lately might be interesting. (Thank you again to everyone who came out this evening.)

Perhaps you read in a recent article in the Daily Jefferson County Union, Thursday, October 9th, "He's leaning toward running against Chief Justice Shirley Abrahamson in next spring's election. He said that he would make a final decision in the next 30 days and announce it after the presidential election." How about that? "A former public defender, he was first elected as judge in 1999." He has served our county well and is our Branch IV Circuit Court Judge. We are delighted that he could take time out of his busy schedule to be here tonight

It's my pleasure to introduce to you Jefferson County Circuit Court Judge Randy Koschnick as our moderator this evening. May I present the Honorable Randy Koschnick.

Thanks for your feedback.
